“Ingleton Primary is a fantastic school. Teachers are kind and supportive which has allowed my two boys to develop and flourish both socially and academically. My children come home from school enthused about their learning and keen to find out more. Any concerns I have always been addressed and resolved promptly.”

“My child absolutely loves Ingleton. He talks about his teacher on a daily basis and can’t wait to be in school. I originally started him 2 days a week in Nursery but even after one week of starting he was crying when he wasn’t going in. The school is a fantastic school.”

“Overall my child has thrived at this school, any issues which have arisen have been supported and/or dealt with from school. From the Head teacher to the Caretaker they all encourage and support both our pupils and parents in developing a love of learning and good behaviour.”

“Ingleton C of E School go above and beyond with communication and taking the time to get to know each child as an individual. The school work with parents to ensure the best for the children. All the staff do their utmost for the children and it’s a wonderful school.”

“My child is very happy attending Ingleton C of E Primary School. She speaks very highly of all teaching staff and enjoys telling me all about her day and what she has been learning about. She enjoys the clubs / activities offered, enjoys completing homework set and takes great pride in sharing challenge homework, or other activities completed at home. I love the culture and ethos the school sets, the warm and nurturing atmosphere and I know my child will excel through high expectations and high nurture.”

“The school provides lots of fun / practical / hands on learning opportunities e.g. forest school, trips, practical classes. Despite limited numbers and miniscule budgets. Teaching is tailored to the individual child. The children are encouraged and celebrated, everyone clearly wants them to succeed and to be happy. Excellent and very accommodating after school and breakfast club. All of the teachers and manager are friendly, approachable and go out of their way to address any queries of concerns.”

“I feel like my child is going to a safe place when he attends school, which as a parent is very reassuring.”

“My child excels at this school. He is consistently encouraged and challenged. His teachers have nurtured, listened and understood my child, and as a result he continues to improve.”

“Could not be happier with Ingleton C of E School! My son loves coming to school. He has built relationships and absolutely loves to learn.”

“Dedicated staff at this school provide a nurturing environment that promotes my child’s learning and confidence. We are very grateful for all your efforts!”

“The school is warm and welcoming. My child is thriving!”

“Ingleton C of E Primary School is a welcoming and friendly environment, all the children are made to feel they can achieve anything if they try. The school’s core values are at the heart of everything they do.”

“Staff go above and beyond to make sure each child’s needs are addressed, working with parents and other services to provide the best possible school experience and learning opportunities for the children. The children are encouraged to push themselves and their achievements are celebrated. Good range of food option, very accommodating and friendly lunch staff.”

“My child seems really happy at this school and we as parents like the fact that it is only a small school so they get a more personal approach.”

“Since starting Pre-School as a family we have felt settled, the transition was smooth, we were reassured and questions were always answered. We have no worries about our child starting Reception in September 2024. We feel he has come on so much and now has an interest in certain areas/things. Each week we hear or see a difference in pronouncing letters and learning numbers / counting. Writing has come on leaps and bounds!”

“Since my child came to this school (Pre-School) she has suffered terribly with separation anxiety. The school has gone above and beyond in putting in strategies to support her, as well as making referrals to external agencies to further support her. She has made huge progress both emotionally and academically especially given her Summer birthday. The opportunities provided by Ingleton and the high expectations from the staff is second to none and is evident in what we see in our child. She challenges us with her knowledge being so broad and she is genuinely excited to further her learning at home. We couldn’t recommend Ingleton any higher and we feel so lucky to have found such a wonderful school, with staff who genuinely care for the children.”
